989 until 2019 the 80% of all Internet traffic will be video.

How does VideoBlog.io work?

Nowadays the most popular video hosting YouTube has millions of videos, the majority of which will never be seen by the public.

VideoBlog.io was created the way to let its every user share their or someone else's video they like with 1 click of a mouse and immediately tell their friends about their post in major social networks. Therefore their feed will only consists of the video they like. Absolutely legally because the author of the video permits to embed their videos from YouTube on other websites by default.

The main benefits of VideoBlog.io

The platform solves the main problems of beginners of the Internet who want to use video marketing for promoting their business or talent:

Simpleness: adding a video to videoblog is done by 1 click of a mouse even if the user doesn't have any own video at YouTube.

Accessibility: user doesn't have to buy domain, hosting for their website, study and use CMS systems, hire a web designer freelancer or programmer to create their website. To build such a website they will have to pay more than $10 000.

Crowd-promoting and SEO optimization: buy posting videos to videoblog and sharing posts to their social networks user promotes their own videoblog and promotes the whole platform simultaneously and therefore the rating of all other videoblogs at the platform.

This is proved by the website rating shown at Alexa.com
